LEADING FIGURES IN THE ALASKA BOUNDARY DISPUTE.

The two leading figures in the Alaska Boundary commission, now in session in London, are Lord Chief Justice Alverstone of England, the presiding officer, and John W. Foster, who prepared the case for the United States government. Mr. Foster, who is regarded as one of the greatest authorities in the world on international law, was secretary of state in the cabinet of President Benjamin Harrison. He has been involved in more squabbles between nations than any man alive, and the fact that he is confident that the verdict of the Alaska commission will be in favor of the United States augurs well for the prospects of success of this government in its contention against the government of Canada.

Ladies and Children Invited.

All ladies and children who cannot stand the shocking strain of laxative syrups, cathartics, etc., are invited to try the famous Little Early Risers. They are different from all other pills. They do not purge the system. Even a double dose will not gripe, weaken or sicken; many people call them the Easy Pill. W. H. Howell, Houston, Tex., says nothing better can be used for constipation, sick headache, etc. Bob Moore, Lafayette, Ind., says all others gripe and sicken, while De Witt's Little Early Risers do their work well and easy. Sold by Avenue Drug Store.

A Serious Mistake.

Perfect Naturalness.

I have had the pleasure of hearing Miss Jones of Delaware and am able to commend her to those who appreciate a reader accomplished in every detail of her art. She has a charming personality, and possesses in a high degree those qualities of graciousness and ready sympathy so necessary to success in her work. These, and her rich mellow voice and perfect naturalness, enable her to capture her hearers without apparent effort.

GEO. HICKMAN REEL, Prop. Shoreham Hotel, Cape May Pt., N. J., says: "It gives me great pleasure to recommend Miss M. Virginia Jones as an eloquent and great merit. Her presence and manner on the platform are very pleasing and her fine personal character lends additional interest to her productions. Possessed of a clear and exceptionally deep voice, her audience is soon drawn into sympathy with the selections she has chosen. As a dramatist she does not spoil the good effect by any superabundance of dramatic effort. We wish her the best of success—as she deserves." City Hall, October 2.
